Applicants are required to attend an applicant information session, whereby the applicant is given an Application Packet and Financial Aid Packet. Contents of the packet are presented by the Director of Operations and the Chief Financial Aid Officer. To be considered for enrollment, the applicant must submit the information listed above (Application Requirements). Each applicant is reviewed on an individual basis by the Admissions and Promotions Committee. The Admissions and Promotions Committee does not guarantee enrollment, as CSPN is a private, non-profit school, and reserves the right to select the best candidates.

Note: Enrollment is contingent on passing a drug test per CSPN guidelines.

The Admissions and Promotions Committee (described below) does not guarantee enrollment, as CSPN is a private, non-profit school, and reserves the right to select the best applicants.

The Admissions and Promotions Committee is composed of the Executive Director, the Director of Operations, and a representative group of faculty members.

The purposes of this committee are to:

1. Review applicants for admission, as appropriate
2. Serve in advisory capacity to faculty regarding academic matters
3. Develop standards and policies for admission and promotion of students
4. Develop methods for evaluating standards and policies
5. Serve as a disciplinary committee for students
6. Promote students
